What happened this week?

- The Malawi Energy Regulatory Authority (MERA) updated the general public that changes in the landed costs of petroleum products may be higher as a result of changes in the free on board prices and the exchange rate. Furthermore, as at 25 January 2022, the price stabilization fund (PSF) balances for petrol, diesel and paraffin averaged MK0.9 billion against a recommended minimum of MK5 billion (MERA, 26-Jan-2022).
- The Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation (ADMARC) requested the government of Malawi for a MK58 billion bailout to offset debts it has accumulated since 2012. The lack of funds for the institution has raised a need for recapitalization. ADMARC has been failing to acquire loans from commercial banks as its balance sheet appears unattractive (The Daily Times, 25-Jan-2022).
- The government of Malawi has secured MK16 billion worth of resources in cash and kind to assist 1.7 million people that are estimated to face hunger in the 2021-22 lean season. The resources were raised based on the assessments conducted by the Malawi Vulnerability Assessment Committee (Mvac) that projected that 1.7 million people across the country would be food insecure. The MK16 billion worth of resources has been provided by Germany, Irish Aid, the European Union, United States Agency for International Development, World Food Programme and the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund (The Daily Times, 25-Jan-2022).
- The Public Private Partnership Commission (PPPC) is in talks with a consortium of two investors that are willing to work on the USD1.1 billion (MK825 billion) Mpatamanga Hydro Power Project. The project is estimated to add 350 megawatts (MW) to the current capacity of 400 MW (27-Jan-2022, The Nation).
- Lotus Resources Limited has expanded the known mineral zone at the Kayelekera Uranium Mine by 100 metres. The development was a result of a recent drilling programme which was conducted at the Kayelekera South prospect (The Nation, 28-Jan-2022).
